

The Hidenwood

Retirement Community in Newport News, VA

If you live in or around Newport News chances are you know someone who lives at The Hidenwood - the parents of a high school friend, a former neighbor, or even a member of your family. Because this is the type of town where friendships last a lifetime, neighbors help each other, and families have roots.

Once you move into The Hidenwood, you'll feel at home. You'll have your own apartment and your own schedule. But to make it even better, you'll have everyday chores like cooking, cleaning and home maintenance taken care of for you.

SERVICES

- 24 hour staffing
- Scheduled van transportation
- Full generator back-up
- Spacious dining room
- Maintenance free living
- Housekeeping and laundry services available

The Hidenwood Retirement Community

50 Wellesley Drive
 Newport News, VA 23606
 Tel: 757/930-1075
 Fax: 757/930-1468

Directions:

From I-64: Take the J. Clyde Morris/Virginia Living Museum Exit. Continue to Warwick Blvd. Turn right. Go approximately 1 mile. Turn left on Wellesley Drive. The Hidenwood is on the left.

LEVELS OF CARE

The Hidenwood offers both Independent and Assisted Living. Assisted Living includes apartment living with help from our nursing staff for daily tasks such as bathing, dressing, walking or taking medications. Residents can choose the services they need and pay for them individually.

FLOOR PLANS

These floor plans will give you an idea of what the apartments at The Hidenwood look like, you're encouraged to see them for yourself. You will be surprised at the spaciousness – even in the studio apartments.

The apartment floor plans are approximate.

THE HIDDENWOOD
 RETIREMENT COMMUNITY

*A Retirement
 Unlimited, Inc.
 Community*