

- Worried about finances?
- Selling a home?
- Waiting for VA benefits?
- Not wanting to tap into assets?

A Line of Credit for Senior Living from Elderlife Financial Services may be just the right solution for you:

- Easy application and approval process in as little as 48 hours.
- Small monthly payments (interest-only until loan matures).

For a limited time only, the community is providing special support to families accessing an Elderlife Line of Credit. Please see the Executive Director for details.

Elderlife Financial Services was founded in 2000 with a simple vision: to help families access senior living by providing a manageable financial solution. Through its Line of Credit for Senior Living, Elderlife Financial has become a leader in providing senior housing finance options. We look forward to assisting you and your family.

*Please Note: The "Sample APR" in these unsecured line of credit examples is arrived by adding the interest rate of 8.24% plus the one-time origination fee of 4% to 5%. The origination fee is based on the credit limit requested. Elderlife takes great pride in its integrity and full disclosure. We encourage you to compare us to other unsecured line of credit options. We are confident you will find Elderlife to be one of the most competitive financial options for senior living. Contact an Elderlife counselor today and see for yourself why Elderlife is the national leader in helping families access quality senior living.

The Elderlife Line of Credit is available to anyone seeking financing to pay for senior or assisted living costs, regardless of age, and is subject to bank/credit approval. Rates as of March 2010. Subject to change without notice.
